Paper & Petals

2027 Edition

Welcome

It's lovely to introduce you to Paper & Petals, a bespoke wedding stationery and floristry business. We are hugely passionate about what we do, take great pride in every detail and, above all, love the romance of a wedding.

Our floral style is relaxed, textural and naturally abundant, with an appreciation for premium, seasonal flowers and those little details that make an arrangement feel extra special. Our approach to stationery is design led, combining beautiful typography, some of the finest cardstocks and carefully considered details to create stationery with real presence and sense of occasion.

Whether you arrive with a clear vision or are still gathering inspiration, we'll guide you through the possibilities, bringing creative ideas and experience to help shape your plans into something cohesive, considered and effortlessly beautiful.

Stationery Booking Process

Book your initial design consultation

Our initial consultation and design fee is £75, which will be deducted from your order when you book. This covers the time to explore your ideas, inspiration and requirements.

Your personalised proposal

We'll discuss your design preferences and quantities before preparing a tailored proposal and detailed quote.

Bespoke design

Once you're happy to proceed, we'll develop your bespoke stationery design, bringing your ideas to life.

Approve and secure your order

Once your design is approved, a signed contract and 75% deposit will confirm your order.

Minimum Investment

Bespoke wedding stationery commissions are subject to a minimum order value of £300.
This is a starting point for bespoke stationery commissions, rather than a set package or the cost of a complete wedding stationery collection. The overall investment will depend on your chosen stationery items, quantities and individual design requirements.
For more information on pricing please see our Guide Pricing

Guide Pricing

The prices below are designed to offer an indication of investment, helping you understand how your floral and stationery designs may come together. They are a guide rather than a list to be totalled, as every wedding we create is entirely bespoke.

Wedding Flowers

Our floral designs are tailored to your vision, with each element carefully considered to create a flowing look throughout your day.
As a guide, most of our couples would look to invest £1,500+ on a full wedding service.
Delivery and on-site setup are quoted separately, according to your venue and the level of service required.

Wedding Stationery

Our stationery focuses on bespoke, coordinated suites rather than individual items supplied in isolation. Each collection is thoughtfully designed to create a consistent look throughout your wedding, from invitations through to on-the-day stationery.

Q&A

Q. What type of flowers do you offer and are they real or artificial?
A. Natural, textural and laid back fresh and dried wedding flowers. We provide bridal party flowers, ceremony décor, table arrangements, staircase décor and much more.

Q. When do we need to book flowers?
A. Most couples book their florist 12-24 months before the wedding.

Q. What types of stationery do you offer?
A. Bespoke, modern and design led wedding stationery. We provide bespoke packages based around save the dates, invitations, table plans, table names, place cards, menus, order of service and signage

Q. When do you arrange and send stationery?
A. Save the dates are usually sent 12 - 18 months before, invitations 3-4 months and on the day stationery 1 month before. Most couples speak to us around 9-12 months in advance of their wedding to design their suite.

Q. Can we only book you if we need both stationery and flowers?
A. Not at all. You are welcome to book either service on its own. Many couples do choose to book both, as it allows us to fully understand their vision and carry it through seamlessly from stationery to flowers on the wedding day. Working with one trusted supplier can also save time and provide peace of mind, knowing everything has been thoughtfully coordinated.
